In the course of my association with Mr. Roshan since 2016 AD, I have been quite impressed by his inquisitive mind, and his academic performance and natural inclination for goal oriented career. He has been amongst the best students during all the past semesters. He also actively participated in all the academic activities, projects and extra-curricular activities.

Mr. Roshan is sincere, social, dedicated to his study and bears a good moral character. I am very convinced with Roshan for his co-operative and positive attitude and ready responses. He takes active participation in all college activities. As regards with his English language, since our college teaches all the subjects in English, he has developed quite fluent and good writing skills.
